

Dear Dr. Kinsella,

Aug. 2, 1994

Thank you very much for the off-prints of your friendly review of my book and your article in Reason Papers. I am delighted by your estoppel approach and think that your argument beautifully complements my argumentation ethics.

I haven't worked on ethical theory for quite a while, but I thought you might as well be interested in some of my other writings.

All the best

Sam M. Moyse
